Objectives

Reframing Autism aims to create a world in which the Autistic community is supported by families and allies to achieve genuine acceptance, inclusion, and active citizenship, and in which Autistic culture and identity are celebrated and nurtured. Reframing Autism is a Health Promotion Charity, and its activities are intended to improve the current bleak mental health profile of the Autistic community, caused by lifelong exposure to discrimination, stigmatisation and exclusion.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

Reframing Autism is a company run by and for Autistic people, and for their families and allies. We combine capacity-building and leadership development with education, research, resource development, mentoring, and support to strengthen the Autistic community. We also promote a united community, bridging the divisive gap between the Autistic community (those identified or who self-identify as Autistic) and the 'Autism' community (the broader non-autistic community with a connection to Autism).

Through Reframing Autism, Autistic people, and non-autistic families and allies of the Autistic community, come together to understand Autism. We promote equity and acceptance. Our vision and goals align with the Australian National Disability Strategy 2010–2020 and the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

Reframing Autism builds hope in the Autistic community by fostering great expectations for a rewarding life grounded in the civil, political and social participation of Autistic people. Reframing Autism also builds hope in the families and allies of Autistic people, moving beyond the narrative of causes, cures and interventions and offering a way to embrace the Autistic community.

Working within the neurodiversity movement, Reframing Autism provides both support and education. Through Reframing Autism, families and allies learn from Autistic people of all ages, to establish inclusion founded in reciprocal respect and a mutually supportive community. It encourages environments in which Autistic individuals can live authentically, and it builds the capacity of families, allies and Autistic people themselves to be leaders and change agents.

The Company's objectives are to pursue the following charitable purposes:

- To empower Autistic individuals to be leaders for their community.
- To support families and allies to meet the needs of Autistic people by embracing the principles of acceptance, respect, and neurodiversity.
- To provide the broader community, especially the families and allies of Autistic individuals, access to Autistic lived experiences and perspectives through education and information.
- To provide opportunities to include underrepresented and marginalised Autistic individuals in the company's governance, educational framework, and in participatory research.
- To bring a national focus to the nature, role and importance of parenting Autistic children with acceptance and respect, and to provide Autistic representation in appropriate policy making and funding bodies.
- To enhance the capability of families through training, workshops, and mentoring.
- To provide a national forum for communicating and sharing information, philosophies, and practices that are respectful of Autistic neurology.
- To provide accessible and informative resources for Autistic individuals, and their families and allies.
- To undertake evaluation and research, to ensure the company continues to produce quality outcomes and transferability.
- To establish a partnership ecosystem with relevant peak representative bodies nationally.

Reframing Autism's values are: Respect, Accept, Embrace, Empower.

Reframing Autism commenced operations on 18 July 2019.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

Strategy for Achieving Objectives

Reframing Autism's vision is a world in which the Autistic community is supported by families and allies to achieve genuine acceptance, inclusion, and active citizenship, and in which Autistic culture and identity are celebrated and nurtured.

Our mission is to change the narrative to fit a strengths-based, neurodiversity view with the goal of improving Autistic mental wellbeing.

Reframing Autism's 5 year strategic plan focuses on changing damaging narratives about Autism. We will target various audiences (for example, diagnosticians, allied health professionals, educators, policy makers) to achieve those strategic objectives, although parents of Autistic individuals are our primary focus at the moment.

Principal Activities

Reframing Autism meets its vision and objectives through a robust educational and research framework, including:

- workshops, professional development, symposia, conferences and courses
- webinars, podcasts and various free and accessible online resources
- research partnerships, and
- systemic advocacy.

Significant Changes

There were no significant changes in nature of these activities during the reporting period.

Performance Measures

Reframing Autism measures and reports on both financial and non-financial data to the Board.

These reports include financial performance as well as information on service delivery, social impact, human resource matters, strategic direction and governance.

NOTES TO AND FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL REPORT
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2022

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 Basis of accounting

The financial report is a special purpose financial report, which has been prepared to satisfy the accountability requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profit Commission Act 2012. The Directors have determined that the Company is not a reporting entity because there are unlikely to exist users of the financial report who are unable to command the preparation of reports tailored so as to satisfy specifically all of their information needs.

These financial statements are presented in Australian dollars ($), and have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the following Australian Accounting Standards:

- AASB 101: Presentation of the Financial Statements;
- AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows;
- AASB 108: Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors;
- AASB 1048: Interpretation and Application of Standards.
- AASB 1054: Australian Additional Disclosures

No assessment has been made to identify if there are any material accounting policies applied and disclosed in these financial statements that do not comply with all the recognition and measurement requirements in Australian Accounting Standards. Further, no assessment has been made to identify whether or not the financial statements overall comply with all the recognition and measurement requirements in the Australian Accounting Standards.

These financial statements do not conform with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

The financial statements are prepared on an accruals basis. They are based on historical costs and do not take into account changing money values. The Company is a not for profit, for the purposes of preparing these financial statements.

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the Company in the preparation of this financial report. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

1.2 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

The Directors evaluate estimates and judgements incorporated into the financial report based on historical knowledge and best available current information. Estimates assume a reasonable expectation of future events and are based on current trends and economic data, obtained from both externally and within the Company.

There are no estimates or judgements which have risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

1.3 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

1.4 Revenue

Education revenue

Education revenue comprises revenue earned from the sales of educational materials, ticket sales to educational events, or ticket sales to educational courses. Revenue is recognised when the sale occurs for education materials. For events, revenue is recognised when the event occurs.

Revenue for educational courses is recognised when the first module of the course is completed. The courses have 6 modules which are required to be completed to receive the certificate. Once the first module has been completed, it is no longer possible to request a refund of fees paid. Further, all course materials can be accessed in read only form once the first module is completed, and therefore even if a certificate has not been earned the course material has still been delivered. Learners have 12 months to complete the full coursework to receive the certificate.

Donations and bequests

Donations and bequests are recognised as revenue when received.

Grants

Grant revenue is recognised in the income statement when the entity receives the grant, when it is probable that the entity will receive the economic benefits of the grant and the amount can be reliably measured.

If the grant has conditions attached which must be satisfied before the entity is eligible to receive the grant, the recognition of the revenue will be deferred until those conditions are satisfied. Deferred revenue is included as other liabilities on the statement of financial position.

1.5 Income tax

The Company is exempt from income tax pursuant to the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

1.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost less, where applicable, any accumulated depreciation.

All assets are depreciated over the useful lives of the assets to the Company commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use.

The following useful lives are used:

Computer equipment and software	3 years
---------------------------------	---------

The carrying amount of plant and equipment is reviewed annually by the Company to ensure it is not in excess of the remaining service potential of these assets.

1.7 Impairment

At each reporting date, the Company reviews the carrying values of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have been impaired. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset, being the higher of the asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use, is compared to the asset's carrying value. Any excess of the asset's carrying value over its recoverable amount is expensed.

1.8 Goods and services tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office. In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item.

1.9 Employee entitlements

Provision is made for the Company's liability for employee benefits arising from services rendered by employees through to balance date. Employee benefits expected to be settled within one year have been measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liability is settled, plus related on-costs. Employee benefits payable later than one year have been measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows to be made for those benefits.

Employee entitlement expenses arising in respect of the following categories are charged against profits on a net basis in respective categories:

Wages and salaries, non-monetary benefits, annual leave, long service leave and other types of employee entitlements.

1.10 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation, as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will result and that outflow can be reliably measured.

1.11 Economic Dependency

The majority of the Company's revenue comes from one grant, which was originally due to end in February 2023. The grantor has provided official notice that the grant has been extended until June 2024, with additional funding to be provided for that extended period. This extension has not yet been formalised in an agreement, though assurances have been provided that it will be received before the end of the grant period.

The Company continues to explore alternative revenue streams, including other grants and events. Further at 30 June 2022, the company had significant cash and reserves to continue to operate.

In our opinion, the financial report of Reframing Autism Ltd has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, including:

- giving a true and fair view of the registered entity's financial position as at 30 June 2022 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
- complying with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1, and Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Regulation 2013.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the entity in accordance with the independence requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Information Other than the Financial Report and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Board Members of the entity are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the entity's annual report for the year ended 30 June 2022, but does not include the financial report and our auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

The Responsibility of the Board Members for the Financial Report

The Board Members of the entity are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report, and have determined that the accounting policies used and described in Note 1 to the financial statements, which form part of the financial reports, are appropriate to meet the financial reporting requirements of the members and of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. The Board Members' responsibility also includes such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the Board Members are responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board Members either intend to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so. The Board Members are responsible for overseeing the entity's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial report is located at the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board website at: <http://www.auasb.gov.au/Home.aspx>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Basis of Accounting and Restriction and Distribution of Use

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to the fact that the financial report is prepared to assist Reframing Autism Ltd to comply with the financial reporting provisions of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, as a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for Reframing Autism Ltd and should not be distributed to or used by other parties other than Reframing Autism Ltd.
